THE WEEK IN BASEBALL.

WRETCHED WORK OF THE NEW-YORKERS.

THE PHILADELPHIA TEAM DID NOT LOSE A GAME -THE RECORDS.

To-day's game will be the last to be played at the Polo Grounds during the first half of the championship season. The New-York and Brooklyn teams will play at Eastern Park to-morrow and Wednesday, and then the local teams will start for the West, where the first division of the champtonship season will end on ave., at 12:30 o'clock yesterday. These hardy July 13. It is to be hoped that when the New-York dragoons, about 100 strong, were the members of

The local team made about the worst record last week ever made by a New-York club. The discourag-ing list shows six defeats and only one victory. The Philadelphia team did the best work, winning seven consecutive victories, while the Cieveland team also had a clean record. The Baltimores lest eight straight in most excellent condition, and none was left behind games, which beats the League record. The Boston on the way. After leaving the armory about twentygames, which beats the League record. The Boston on the way. After leaving the armory about twenty-team won seven games and lost one, while Ward's five of the officers and privates took a quiet lancheon

The Boston team not only has an emphatic lead, but its team is playing in excellent form. The Phila-delphia and Brooklyn nines have a bare chance to overtake the New-Englanders, but a betting man would demand long odds before betting that any such thing would happen. The Philadelphia team has been play-ing a remarkable game, winning its fifteenth consecutive victory on Saturday. Should the Quaker City men win to-day they will tie the League record. The nine is playing the better game of the two and New-York may yet finish in tenth place, which will be the worst record a New-York team ever made, or probably will make again. The prediction that Chicago had an overrated team has been verified. The record to date

GALLANT CAVALRIMEN AND THEIR RIDE.

TROOP "A" COMES BACK DUSTY BUT IN GOOD SPIRITS.

A sun-burned and jovial band of horsemen, whose martial banners and trappings showed dust of travel, rode into its headquarters in Fifty-sixth-st., near Sixth-ave., at 12:30 o'clock yesterday. These hardy names and records of winners of squadron prizes in told in many a newspaper.

A large number of the privates and about fifteen remmissioned officers of the 69th Regiment were present to welcome the cavalry. Captain Roo's terse orders, "Dismount," "Unsaddle" and "Dismiss" were the only official words uttered. The men all appeared men won four and lost two. The week's record is as at the New-York Athletic Club. Among those follows: Balch, of Albany, who noted as post surgeon during the week; Lieutenant Herbert Balch, Sergeant Badgeley; Corporal Coudert and Privates Ficken, Williams, Marecilus, Cross, Nichells, Price, Gilford, Suss, Geer, Thomson, Van Rensselaer and Hoag. An informal concert was given while the coffee was being served.

A Tribune reporter who was surprised by one of the Troop pichets was brought before the "Big 4." one of whom said: "We arrived at Mr. Gould's place, near Irvington, about 6 o'clock last night. After taking care of our horses, which were thirsty and tired like their riders, we ate supper, and then relling curselves in our big red blankets by around blazing campfire telling stories and listening New-York team is disgracefully beaten and nobody now to the singing of Captain Roe, who led '10 000 cares much where the team finishes. under the direction of Corporal Hurry and "Jack" Under the direction of Corporal Hurry and "Jack" Knapp, we started for home in ligh spirits at 6:30. E. A. Thomson, one of our fellows, who took the burels for the 'wondle run from the plucky sprinters of the 'gallant dotth' on Thursday, has covered his company and himself with everlasting honor. Mr. Thomson was well known as an athletic when at Harvard, but has not been in training lately. The only unpleasant feature of the week was the mislap to Corporal Fraser C. Fuller, who had the misfortune to break his leg."

> DR. FULLER HAS PNEUMONIA. Dr. Fraser C. Fuller, the well-known physician, who had the misfortune to brenk his leg while in the per-formance of his duty as a member of Troop A at Peekskill last week, was attacked by pneumonia on Saturday evening, and is now at his home, No. 47 present attached to the receiving ship Vermont at the West Fiftieth-st., in a critical condition. Drs. Kerr and Bridgman, who are constantly in attendance at the bedside of their professional brother, are of the opinion that the crisis of the disease will not be reached for several days. Dr. Fuller was restinguistly when a reporter called late last night, and his attendant said that he was in no immediate danger.

NUMBERS OF WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE AT WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS.

White Sulphur Springs, June 26 (Special),-Cheering showers for several successive days have purified the air, given richer tints to the brilliant summer foliage, brought to bloom the rhododendrons in the woods and driven back into the valleys the disagreeable element of humidity which had begun to penetrate these high mountain fastnesses. The sun has given a good test of his powers in these days when the good people of New-York have been sufficienting, but there has as yet been no day when a party of pedestrians could not with comfort take long morning walks, return-ing at noonday without saffering from anything more than a moderate degree of warmth. The singular purity of the atmosphere at this long eminence, 2,000 feet above sea-level, prevents prostration or other disagreeable effects of midsummer sunshine. And he is indeed a thankless soul who complains of the weather when the temperature is such that two good woollen blankets are acceptable covering at night.

The White Sulphur cottages are gradually welcoming their usual summer occupants. These pleasant little adjuncts of the great hotel are built on the comfortable Southern plan of high, wide porches, extending around three sides of the house, guarded by white Doric columns. Each row of cottages has its name and its own peculiar advantages. The Tensas row, in which is now settled the family of Judge Prior, is among the most popular, and is delightfully situated in the border of a wood and is well shaded by lefty trees. The Colonnade and South Carollina rows, on either side of the Tensas, share its fine location. From the Baltimore, Faradise and Louisiana rows a mag-nificent view of the mountains is obtained, and the entire effect of the hundred white cottages, endeding at a respectable distance the mammoth central buildold the lead in the race for the Amateur League ing, when each cottage has its gay awning, rows of palms and other potted plants, inviting hammocks and guests in summer attire, with a background of mountain views and a broad, rich lawn shadel with noble trees in the foreground, is very picturesque.

Horseback riding is one of the most popular amuse

Horseback riding is one of the most popular annessments of the place, and, as nearly all Southern girls are good riders, the roads in all directions are brightened by gampless of equestrian partiess.

Among the best-known guests of the house at present are the venerable Rev. Pr. J. S. Henkel, of Charlotteaville, widely known in the South and North for his able connects in the body of the Episcopai Church; Professor S. L. Earbour and wife, of Hartford, Conn. C. W. Hunt and family, John G. Van Hour and family, Stancilit E. Downs and Miss Downs, all of New-York; Mrs. E. D. Christian and family and Mrs. Julia Carrington, of Richmond, and Mrs. J. P. Helm and family, of Louisville.

Cottage emagements for the near future include J. W. Khinehart and family, of Boston; W. H. Felton and family, of Adanta; Dr. W. C. Dabney and family, of Macca, Ga.; Clarence Knowkes and family, of Adlanta; Dr. W. C. Dabney and family, of Maclanta; Dr. W. C. Babney and family, of Maclanta; Dr. W. C. Babney and family, of New-Orleans, and many others.

The Rev. O. J. Cowles, puster of the Cornell Melnorial Church, in Seventy slathest, near Second-ave., gave the use of the church last evening to the Industrial Christian Alliance, in order that its work might be brought before the people of that part of the city. After a short service, Arthur W. Milbury, secretary of the association, briefly explained the plan and scope of the work which the alliance is now carrying on and what is purposed to do in the future to increase its usefulness. The Aillance is absolutely unsectarian in is organization and in the disbursement of its charities. It aims to help those who are willing to help thouselves, and to that end it has established a home at No. 113 Macdongal-st.. where men who are homeless and penniless are re-ceived, clothed, fed and taken care of until physically and morally fit to go to work and apport themselves. Only those who are willing to work in the home or in the broom factory of the association are re-ceived and cared for. Reasonable compensation for the labor thus performed is given, so that a man leaving the home has a small capital with which to a capacity of twenty dozen brooms a day, is the only industry started, but arrangements are being rapidly pushed to open more of these industrial shops, E. J. Draper also spoke of the satisfactory results of the work in the shop, and its wife, who is better known as Sister Charlotte, related some of her ex periences in mission and evangelical work in the slums of lower New-York. A number of men who have been rescued from lives of drunkenness and depravity came forward and gave testimony to the good results of the Alliance. Among the organ zers and officers of the Alliance are George D. Mackay, James G. Beemer, the Rev. Dr. R. S. MacArthur, Henry J. Davison, Jr., Friederick W. Rockefellow, E. B. Harper and the Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton.

EXPLOSION IN A DRY GOODS STORE.

An explosion from some unknown cause occurred fancy and drygoods store of Samuel Morcus, at No. 124 Monroe-st. William Marcus, the fifteen year-old son of the proprietor, was attempting to climb up on top of a closet in the sleeping-rooms of the family at the rear of the store, when he was suddenly thrown to the floor by an explosion which made noise enough to be heard throughout the neighborhood. The boy was cut badly about the face and head and bled pro-fusely, though little other damage was done. The top of the closet was blown out, and a pane of glass and a lot of dishes and cooking utensils were broken. The boy was taken to the Gouverneur Hospital, where his wounds were dressed. From there he was sent to the ave., to ascertain if his eyes were hadly injured. The proper care the injured lad would be all right again a few weeks. He then returned home, and at a in a few weeks. He then returned home, and at a late hour last night was sleeping easily. The cause of the explosion is entirely anknown. So far as can be learned no chemicals or other combustible ma-terials were kept in or on top of the closet, and it is probable that the boy had some explosive with him (perhaps fireworks for the Fourth of July) when he climbed up in the closet.

EFFICIENCY OF THE MARINES.

TO BE TRIED BY COURT-MARTIAL-VACANCIES IN BOTH BRANCHES.

Washington, June 26,-A general order from the quadron of Evolution, acting Rear-Admiral Walker nmanding, publishing the results of target-firing of officers and men attached to vessels of the squadre team makes a fresh start at the Polo Grounds, on July 15, it will start out in good shape and play ball at the State Camp at Peckskill have already been told in many a newspaper.

In the order Admiral Walker states that the best record by any division in small arms firing was the of the marine guard of the Chicago, which won seven teen of the thirty-eight squadron prizes, including twelve of the first seventeen; that in addition t this excellence the marines of the Chicago did exceptionally well in firing from boats under condi-tions prescribed by orders from the Navy Depart-ment relating to the subject, and that, in conclu-sion, "the proficiency of the marine guard of the Chicago as a bedy merits commendation."

In connection with the subject of the proficiency of marines as marksmen, official reports received from commanding officers of various vessels of the Navy indicate that such proficiency of the marines is not confined to their practice with small arms (muskets), but that when stationed as distinctive crews under their own officers at either the primary or secondary batteries on board ship, their discipline and efficiency

AMERICAN TRADE IN CANADA.

FIGURE'S SHOWING THE BUSINESS DONE WITH THIS COUNTRY AS AGAINST GREAT BRITAIN Washington, June 26 (Special)-An extremely in teresting and instructive report or "American against British Trale in Canada" has been received at the State Department from Consul Ryder, of Quebec. From this report it appears that more than one half of the Canadian import trade is with the United states; that the imports from this country exceed by more than $17,000,000 the imports from Great Britain and its depo deocies, and that the export trade with Great Britain exceeds by more than $12,000,000 that with the United States. After giving the totals of imports and experts for 1800 and 1801, Mr. Ry ler

There are certain lines of manufactures controlled by Great irritain which should be altogether monopolized by Americans, and it simult be the aim of our enterprising manufacturers to press onward for this market. The beliance of trade is more in favor of the United States than the figures indicate, for it several instances where the importations from Great Britain exceed those from the United States, they include large shipments of partially manufactured goods and raw material admitted at low rate of duly; on the contrary, where those from the United States are in excess they are made up of heavy importations of the highest class of goods in the completion of which the heat of salited labor is required, raw material being a very small factor. Take, for instance, imports under the heading of "manufactures of iron and steel." The amount from Great Britain is swelled by Party shipments of refuse scrap, pigs, bars, common black sheet from etc., while the Imports from the Colled States are made in principally of buildiers' and carriage hasdware, fixed edged tools, locks, saws, mechanics' tools, surgical instruments, etc. What abribles to this industry can be fairly t others.

The United States monopolizes the importations of agricultural implements, musical instruments, printing machinery, electrical supplies, line papers and papeterles, leather and manufactures of leather, rubber boots, shoes and belling, watch and clock movements, field and garden reeds, binders, twine, etc. In manufactures of the we supply ten times as much as Great Britain. Last year we contributed more wool (washed, not further prepared) than any other country, amounting to $555,000. The United States farnished 50 per cent of the total imports of dried fruits, such as currents, raisins, pluns, primes, etc. The importations of gold and silver lewelry from the United States were four times the amount from all other countries combined.

While Canada exports about $11,000,000 worth of annuanufactured product of her forests to the United States, she receives in return mently $3,000,000 worth of our manufactured wood, an important item being a fine class of furniture. In drags and chemicals (free and dutiable) the United States furnishes more than twice the amount of Great Britain.

The importations of cotion goods from Great Britain last year increased over $1,000,000, and there was a decrease of $23,553 in like imports from the United States. Great Britain controls the Canadian market for woollen goods, yet there was a decline of more than $1,000,000 in the imports as compared with 1810. There was a shrinkage of the imports of rubber goods, which, the Consul says, "was owing to successful home production, stimulated by a 35 per cent tariff."

A number of prominent Republicans are in the city who will remain until after the Republican State Com mittee meets here to-morrow for permanent organization, the selection of the Executive Committee and the of measures looking to the speedy opening of an active, enthusiastic campaign. The meeting will take place in Parlor D. R., of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and will be called to order at noon by William Brookfield, the temporary chairman. The opinion eemed to be general yesterday that Mr. Brookfield would be asked to remain at the helm for another year. His popularity is unquestioned and many good polithis popularity is implies under and many good poli-ticians think that with his natural ability, tact and judgment, and the experience which he has gained, he is just the mon to fill the office acceptably and suc-cessfully during the Presidential contest.

Among well-known Republicans seen at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening was General N. Curtis, member of Congress from the St. Lawrence General Curtis, who came from Washington vesterlay, is naturally warmly interested in the contest which will be waged in this State this fall. He is Past Department Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, and has a larger acquaintance with war veterans in New-York probably than any other man in the State. He said last evening that he had done more pension work perhaps than any twenty other members of the House. "General Sickles was right." Senator Prank Hiscock, who is in this city on his way back to Weshington from a short visit at his home in Syracuse and will remain here until after the State Committee meeting, said inst evening that he found the Republican tide steadily rising in this state 'The sentiment prevails through the interior," said, "that Harrison and Reid form the winning ticket this year. The nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson was received coldly. Nolody wants the business de ransement and unsettling of values which their elec-tion offers. The people desire peace and prosperity to continue, and they know that this will be insured by the election of Harrison and Reid."

Charles W. Hackett, of "The Utlen Morning Herald," one of the most successful business men of Cueida County, is talked of for chairman of the Ecpublican Executive Committee, when the State Committee comes to be organized to marrow. Mr. Hackett was at the Fifth Avenue Ratel last evening. In relation to the political outlook, Mr. Sabin posed to any change of Administration. Mr. Harrison has proved an admirable President and the people want him to stay where he is. Mr. Reid's nomination is highly satisfactory to the voters of Minnesota and adds great strength to the ticket in all directions. There is an effert going on between some of the Democratic leaders and those of the People's Party, so called, to join forces this year, but I don't think it will amount to much. Harrison is going to be elected anyway.

"It would be a mighty mean party that would unite with the Democrats now," remarked Thomas Lowry, the well-known railroad operator of Min-neapolls, who was with Mr. Sabin.

MR. YATES DIED IN THE AMBULANCE. P. William Yates, who was ejected from the Red Star steamer Belgeland on Saturday because he was in the last stages of consumption, died yesterday morn-ing. After being taken to Rich's Hotel he grew worse, and finally Mr. Rich summoned Dr. McGill, who said the man was almost in a dying condition and could only last a few hours. He thought the best place for him was the City Hospital. Mr. Rich summor ambulance and Mr. Yates was placed in the care of the surgeon. He died before the hospital was reached and the body was taken to the morgne. County Physician Converse gave a permit for burial, but the authorities say that unless some one takes measures to recover from the Red Star Company the money Mr. Yates paid for his passage to Antwerp the body will have to go to the Potter's Field, as Mr. Yates has neither relatives nor friends in this country. He was simply going to Engiand in order that he might die at home. He was unmarried and lived with his parents.

Fathers Corr and Kelly, of St. Bridget's Church; Fathers Lovance and Harpes, of St. Peter's Church, and Father Byrne, of Fort Lee, assisted. The Ancient Order of Hibernians also took part in the celebration. The Home when fully fitted up will have cost $50,000. It is already in possession of the Sisters, who have 130 children in their charge.

ORANGE.

ANOTHER GRADE-CROSSING ACCIDENT. Another victim of the deadly, unguarded graderossing in West Orange has emphasized the need of prompt action on the part of the authorities. On saturday night John Moclair was killed on Watching branch of the Greenwood Lake road, at the Lakeside-ave, crossing, only a short distance from the spot where less than a week ago young Koehler lost his life. Mociair was an employe of the Orange Distilled Water Ice Company, and was in the act of crossing the track to the works when he was struck by an up-train. He was a single man, forty-two years old, steady and trustworthy.

The West Orange Township Committee on Saturday night decided to stop the Sunday desecration at Eagle Rock, and a large number of special officers were worn in for the purpose. The action of the com mittee was the veriest farce, as beer was not only openly sold all day long yesterday in the hotel and openly sold all day long yesteriny in the hotel and pavilions, but was carried into the grounds. The merry-go-round, the photograph galleries, the rifle ranges and all the other side-shows were in full blast all day. The officers stopped all the stages that ran from the terminus of the electric railroad to the Rock except those that were licensed by the committee, and all the peanut and fruit venders along the road were notified to that they could not sell on the road. They simply moved their stands a few feet back into the bushes, and kept right on selling, under the very noses of the officers.

NEWARK. HE WENT TO HIS WIFE'S HOME TO DIE.

Daniel Webster Morgan, twenty-five years old, died at his wife's home, No. 13 West Kinney-st., yesterday from the effects of a dose of strychnine. Morgan had not been living with his wife for a year. They were married three years ago. He called at the house at 1 p. m. yesterday and said to his wife that he was Without any explanation he walked upstairs and fell on the floor. To his wife's inquiry he acknowledged that he had taken strychnine. He was dying when a doctor called and expired in half an hour. Morgan was out of work and was shunned by former friends on account of a series of pilferings which he perpetrated in the place of his employer, George C. Miller, a merchant tailor, and for which he was sent to jull for eighteen months. He was suspected of other robberies after his release from jull. The police say he was infimuted with a girl living in Paterson.

Luti Schroebel, eleven years old, of No. 122 Barclayt., who was found last Wednesday lying unconscious at Eighteenth and Little sts., with his skull fractured, died at the City Hospital vesterday. In a conscious interval the boy said that another boy had pashed him under the wheel of a coal cart. The County Physician has ordered an inquest in the case.

RUTHERFORD.

The second annual lawn party of the Rutherford Wheelmen was held on the club grounds, at Parkave, and Summit Cross on Saturday night, and was attended by hundreds of people. The grounds presented an attractive appearance, and a large dancing platform had been elected. A circle of incandescent lights surrounded the platform, while Chinese lanterns were strung along the boundaries of the grounds. Delegations were present from the Columbia Wheelsen, of Woodside; the Bergen County Wheelmen, of Ridgefield; the Hamilton Wheelmen, of Jersey City he Atalanta Wheelmen, of Newark, and the Elizabeth

LABOR MEN AROUSED.

REPORT OF THE INDUSTRIAL SENATE OF NEW-JERSEY.

GOVERNOR ABBETT AND THE STATE "RING". DENOUNCED-BROKEN PLEDGES.

The Executive Committee of the Industrial Senate of New-Jersey, which comprises representatives of the Knights of Labor, the trade unions, Farmers' Alliance, Single Tax and Nationalist clubs, has prepared Its annual report of the work done during the session of the Legislature. It will be presented to the convention which is to meet at Trenton in a few weeks to formulate plans for the fall campaign.

Last year the committee prepared a number of bills which the farmers and labor people desired passed by the Legislature, and previous to election they sent pledges to the candidates, asking them to pledge themselves to vote for these bills if they were elected. Nearly every member of the Assembly and Senate signed the pledges, but few kept them. Out of the sixteen bills introduced only two became laws; these being the Fifty-five-hours' bill and the bill providing for a State Board of Arbitration. Among the measures introduced and which falled to pass, were: The Weekly Payment of Wages bill; a repealer of the State Police Pinkerton bill; a bill to provide for the printing of the laws in pamphlet form; amendments to the Ballot Reform law; providing for personal legislation and the distribution of the official ballots only within the polling place on of surface railway employes; a bill against the dis-crimination in freight rates; a bill providing for the reorganization of the Factory Inspection Bureau and the appointing of female factory inspectors; and amendments to the Mechanics' Lien law, and the Saturday Half Hollday law.

The report of the committee, after giving an ac-count of the measures of relief asked for declares that the record of the last Legislature was one of the most disgraceful ever known, even more disgraceful then that of the disorderly House of 1884. Bribery and corruption, it is stated, were rampant.

The report then says:

From Governor Abbett we could expect no help.
Again he was asked to make good his promises made to your committee in relation to the Weskly Payment bill, but he refused to render the assistance promised in the letter of March 29, 1590, in which he said that he would work and see that the bill was passed if the Legislature were Democratic. The faiseness of Governor Abbott is not only disgraceful, but his actions are dishousat.

ernor Abbott is not only disgraceful, but his actions are dishonest.

Since the election of Governor Abbott the State has been dominated by country rings of freebooters, who have held a lesh over the heads of honest men, looting the treasury, crowding on taxation through thievery and fraud. But a better crn is at hand. One infamons city ring in Hudson Country has been overthrown, and this result was brought about through the elgantic assaults of the New York press and the members of our organization. It it had not been for the zeal of Brother J. T. Altemus, who swore out the complaints against the ballot-box stuffers, and with Prosecutor Winfield prepared all the cases for trial, none of these rescals would ever have been indicted. The committee suggests that all of the bills that failed to pass last year be introduced again this year, and an active canvass be made immediately throughout the State in favor of those men who supported and who will support the labor measures. The committee declares that the Industrial Scante represents 30,000 farmers and labor men and reports a large increase in membership.

The report closes with a long denunciation of Governor Abbett, and gives a number of reasons why he should not be elected United States Senator.
